INDEX

INDEX

Acton, Lord, 100
Adams, John Quincy, 111
Aid to Latin America credits, 149, 150, 152–153
    Brazil agreement with United States, 14, 40, 64, 69–70, 152
    British extension of credit, 149–150 desirability of, 40–41, 70–71, 167–168
  methods of, 8
  necessity for, 15, 40
ALFARO, RICARDO J., The Future of Inter-American Relations, 141–146
Alien groups, see Minorities
AMERICA LOOKS SOUTHWARD, Max Winkler, 34–41
American solidarity, see Pan-Americanism
Aranha, Oswaldo, 14, 152
Argentina
  attitude of, toward United States, 56, 67–68 international trade with, 39–40, 67–68
  United States embargo on meats from, 66–67, 148
Armaments
  increase of, resulting from National Socialism, 29 not desired by Latin America, 14–15, 117
  See also Defense of the Americas
Atlantic Union
  benefits of, 99
  countries included in, 96–97 meaning of, 97–98
  motives of, 98–99
  United States as example of, 99–101
ATLANTIC UNION PLAN AND THE AMERICAS, THE, Clarence K. Streit, 93–101

Balbo, Italo, 52
Barrenechea, Julio, quoted, 24
BEHRENDT, RICHARD F., Foreign Influences in Latin America, 1–8
Bertillon, J., 104
BIDWELL, PERCY W., Trading with Dictators, 59–65
Blaine, James G., 112
Bolívar, Simón, 9, 137
Borchard, Edwin M., 170, 171
Bosch, Robert, 91
Brazil agreement, see Aid to Latin America
Briand, Aristide, 94
Bruening, Heinrich, 32

Cabrera, 11
Camoratta, E., quoted, 21
Cantilo, José María, 9, 13
  quoted, 10
Cárdenas, Lázaro, 14, 37
Carlyle, Thomas, 124
CARSON, JAMES S., New Approaches in Inter-American Commercial Relations, 66–71
CASTLE, WILLIAM R., The Monroe Doctrine and Pan-Americanism, 111–118
  cited, 120, 121, 122
Chamberlain, Neville, 26, 106
Churches in Germany as affected by National Socialism, 27
Churchill, Winston, 31
Civilization, maturity of, 102–105 policies in view of, 109–110
Clay, Henry, 13
Collective security
  a principle of the Declaration of Lima, 121 necessary to democracy, 138
Confiscation of oil properties, see Expropriation of oil properties
Continental solidarity, see Pan-Americanism
Cooper, Alfred Duff, 31
Cossell, Hans H. von, 22
Cox, George Howland, cited, 133, 135
Credit to Latin America, see Aid to Latin America
Cromwell, Oliver, 106
Cruchaga Ossa, Alberto, 170, 171
CULBERTSON, WILLIAM S., Protection of Business Enterprise in the Americas, 169–174 Cultural relations with Latin America of totalitarian countries, 4–5 of United States, 15–16, 57, 116, 122, 132–133, 139
    Pan-American Catholic Congress suggested, 57–58

Daladier, Édouard, 52
Debt, governmental, a threat to democracy, 105–107, 108 Declaration of Lima discussion of points of, 12–14, 120–121, 144–145 importance of, 16, 143–144
  inadequacy of, 40
  text of, 135–136
  See also Lima Conference
DEFENSE OF THE AMERICAS, THE, George Fielding Eliot, 49–53 a mutual responsibility, 117–118 air power as a threat, 50–51 defense of sea approaches, 51–52 formation of military policy, 49–50 role of the army, 52
  United States responsibility, 52–53
Democracy collective security necessary to, 138 defense of by democracies, 98
    international organization for, 96–101

United States responsibility for, 107–108
in Latin America different from United States Democracy, 56–57 methods of strengthening, 8 threat to, 17, 55, 93–94 different views regarding, 9–10, 130 government debt, 105–107, 108
See also Atlantic Union; Defense of the Americas; Totalitarian influence in Latin America
Deuel, Wallace R., cited, 21
Development of Latin American resources, see Aid to Latin America
Díaz, Porfirio, 11
Dickman, Enrique, 24
Dictators in Latin America, 11–12
Dictatorships fostered by economic distress, 115
Dodds, Harold W., 75
Drummond, Henry, 87, 88

Economic research agencies for, 76–78 extent of, 72
methods of, 78
need for, 72–73
subjects of, 73–76
Eden, Anthony, 31
Edison, Thomas A., 71
Education as affected by totalitarian pressures, 31
EFRON, DAVID, Latin America and the Fascist "Holy Alliance," 17–25
Ehrlich, Emil, quoted, 19
Eighth International Conference of American States, see Lima Conference
ELIOT, GEORGE FIELDING, The Defense of the Americas, 49–53
Espil, Felipe A., 67
Expropriation of oil properties
by Bolivia, 38, 114
by Mexico, 3–4, 37–38, 114
United States attitude toward, 14, 37, 114–115

Fascist influence, see Totalitarian influences in Latin America
Federzoni, Luigi, quoted, 22
FENWICK, CHARLES G., Lima Conference in Relation to World Peace, 119–125
Filho, Cafe, 22
FOREIGN INFLUENCES IN LATIN AMERICA, Richard F. Behrendt, 1–8
Foreign policy of United States
no responsibility toward Europe, 52–53 responsibility toward Latin America, 51–53 toward Latin America, 141–142
See also Good neighbor policy; International trade; Monroe Doctrine Franco, Francisco, 5, 6, 21
quoted, 20
Frugoni, Emilio, 23
Furst, Karl, 24
FUTURE OF INTER-AMERICAN RELATIONS, THE, Ricardo J. Alfaro, 141–146

Giesecke, Albert A., 132
Gil, Enrique, quoted, 133
Goebbels, Paul Joseph, 27, 28
Goering, Hermann Wilhelm, 27
quoted, 21
Gómez, Juan Vicente, 11
Good neighbor policy
as superseding the Monroe Doctrine, 18, 113 endangered by armaments, 14–15 incumbent upon Latin American countries, 38, 113–114
Government intervention in business and foreign trade, pro and con, 74–75, 154, 162–163
Grant, Ulysses S., 106
Grassi, Alberto J., 24

HELTON, ROY, The Need for Maturity, 102–110
Hitler, Adolf, 8, 10, 19, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 32, 61, 62, 66, 67, 80, 85, 98, 106, 115
aims of, 28
attitudes of Germans toward, 29
Hoover, Herbert, 114
quoted, 34
Hughes, Charles E., 112, 171
Hull, Cordell, 13, 14, 41, 59, 60, 62, 67, 121, 122, 141
quoted, 9–10, 129–130, 171–172

Income, national, decline in, 72–73, 102
See also Purchasing power
Industrial research, see Economic research
INMAN, SAMUEL GUY, Lima Conference and the Totalitarian Issue, 9–16
Introduction, 129–136
cited, 5, 21
Intellectual relations, see Cultural relations
Inter-American relations, see Cultural relations with Latin America; International trade; Investments, international; Pan-Americanism
INTER-AMERICAN TRADE PROBLEMS, Eugene P. Thomas, 147–154 International law diplomatic protection of foreigners
benefits of, 173–174
Latin American interpretation of, 170 practice versus theory in, 172–173
United States interpretation of, 171–172 governs the Americas, 173 superior to national law, 169 violated by expropriation of oil properties, 37 violated under National Socialism, 30 International trade

as easing economic conditions, 115, 124
British policy, 147–148
freedom of, essential to peace, 121–122, 123–125
German policy, 2, 38–39, 40, 66, 150–152, 153–154 how much is desirable, 73–74, 107
Latin American and European markets compared, 95
"open door" closed, 60–61 purposes of commercial policy, economic and political, 61–62 totalitarian versus democratic trade methods, 31, 38–39, 40, 59–60, 66, 164 United States policy, 147, 154 trade agreements program achievements of, 59–60, 64–65 indorsed by exporters, 147, 154 principles of, 59, 121–122
United States with Cuba, 68–69
United States with Europe, 35, 40
United States with Germany, 62–63 with Argentina
Germany and Great Britain, 39–40
United States, 67–68
compared with Germany and Great Britain, 39–40 with Latin America competition in, 40, 64, 148–149, 150, 164
Germany, 2, 38–40, 63, 150, 151
Italy, 3
Japan, 2–3
United States, 1, 34–35, 39–40, 63, 150, 164
as affected by trade restrictions, 36–37
See also Shipping
Intervention in Latin America, 111–112
INTRODUCTION, Samuel Guy Inman, 129–136 Investments, international defaults on Latin American debts, 70, 95, 166
European democracies as an investment field, 95
Latin America as an investment field, 35–37, 41, 166–167
United States, 34–37
industrial investments in Latin America, 165

Jefferson, Thomas, 95
Juárez, Benito, 13

KREUSER, OTTO T., Some Inter-American Financial Problems, 164–168

Labor, employers' responsibility toward, 82–83, 89–90
Lahusen, Christel, 24
Landon, Alfred M., 57
Lange, Friedrich, quoted, 19
LARGER SIGNIFICANCE OF THE LIMA CONFERENCE, THE, L. S. Rowe, 137–140
LATIN AMERICA AND THE FASCIST "HOLY ALLIANCE," David Efron, 17–25
Latin American attitudes toward United States, 56, 141, 142
See also Monroe Doctrine; Press, the LEEDS, MORRIS E., Political Economy and the Industrialist, 72–79
LEITH, C. K., The Struggle for Mineral Resources, 42–48
Lewis, Cleona, cited, 35
quoted, 36–37
Lima Conference
accomplishments of, 119–122, 139–140, 143–146 atmosphere of, 119, 137, 139 background of, 119, 137, 142 democratic character of, 11 implications of Declarations of, 137–138 summary of actions, 133–135 totalitarian influence exerted at, 11, 12, 143
See also Declaration of Lima
LIMA CONFERENCE AND THE TOTALITARIAN ISSUE, Samuel Guy Inman, 9–16
LIMA CONFERENCE IN RELATION TO WORLD PEACE, Charles G. Fenwick, 119–125
Lincoln, Abraham, 60
Litvinoff, Maxim, 28
Loree, Leonor F., 102

Macmillan, Harold, quoted, 79
Mahan, Alfred Thayer, quoted, 50
Maximilian, Archduke, 13
Mazzolino, Serafino, 23
MEYER, ERNST WILHELM, Repercussions of National Socialism upon Foreign Countries, 26–33
Military alliance between United States and Latin America, unwisdom of, 14–15, 116–117
Military policy, see Defense of the Americas Mineral resources a war necessity, 42 basic need for, 42–43 controlled by democracies, 42, 48 meeting the problem of by affording access to supplies, 46–47, 124–125
by defense of the status quo, 47–48 of Germany: iron, copper, oil, 43–45 of Italy, 45
of Japan, 45–46
United States position regarding, 48
See also Expropriation of oil properties Minorities in Latin America collective action of, forbidden, 139, 145 diplomatic protection of, 169–174 menace of, 21–24, 138–139

Monroe, James, 9, 17, 18, 95, 111, 119, 130
Monroe Doctrine
as basis of intervention in Latin America, 111–112 continentalization of, 119, 121, 139, 145 hatred of, 112, 119 original intent of, 18, 111, 139 perversion of, 18 present importance of, 9 reinterpretation of, 18, 112–113 scope of, 122–123
MONROE DOCTRINE AND PAN-AMERICANISM, THE, William R. Castle, 111–118
Montes, José Garcia, 69
Morgenthau, Henry, 41
Mussolini, Benito, 8, 19, 20, 21, 27, 28, 66, 67, 80, 98, 106, 115

Nájera, Francisco Castillo, 14
National income, see Income, national National Socialism
aims of, 28
and private property, 30
as affecting Christian churches in Germany, 27
attitudes of Germans toward, 29
international effects of, 29–32 vitality of, 26–28
See also Totalitarian influences in Latin America Natural resources of Latin America, development of, 70–71 of Western Hemisphere, self-sufficiency of, 107
See also Mineral resources
NEED FOR MATURITY, THE, Roy Helton, 102–110
NEW APPROACHES IN INTER-AMERICAN COMMERCIAL RELATIONS, James S. Carson, 66–71

Owen, Robert, 88

Paine, Thomas, 101
Pan-Americanism
based on mutual respect, 117 continental solidarity, 130–131, 139–140, 173 national attitudes toward, 142–143 inadequate to defend democracy, 94 interpretation of, 113
methods of strengthening, 115–118
Monroe Doctrine and, 111–118
Pan American Union, enlarged functions of, 135 reasons for, 95–96, 131–132
Paul, Ernst Otto, 20
PEARSALL, CHARLES H. C., Transportation Problems, 155–163
Pellegrini, Aldo, 21
Pemartin, José, quoted, 20
Pittman, Key, 14
Political alignments of Latin American countries, 11–12, 143
POLITICAL ECONOMY AND THE INDUSTRIALIST, Morris E. Leeds, 72–79 Population growth birth rates in relation to income, 104 decline of, in United States, 103 Press, the Argentinian, view of American solidarity, 142–143 freedom of, in Europe, as affected by National Socialism, 31
Interocean News Service, menace of, 55, 57
Latin American attitude toward armaments, 15 attitude toward Franco rebellion, 5–6 attitude toward United States, 55, 57
Private property and totalitarianism, 5, 30
PROTECTION OF BUSINESS ENTERPRISE IN THE AMERICAS, William S. Culbertson, 169–174 Purchasing power, necessary for upkeep of business, 84
See also Income, national

Quesada, Ernesto, quoted, 132

Raw materials, see Mineral resources; Natural resources Refugees resulting from National Socialism, 29–30
REPERCUSSIONS OF NATIONAL SOCIALISM UPON FOREIGN COUNTRIES, Ernst Wilhelm Meyer, 26–33
Richberg, Donald R., 14
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 56, 57, 67, 115, 123, 130, 141, 171
quoted, 129
Roosevelt, Theodore, 141
Rosenberg, Alfred, 28
Rowan-Robinson, Henry, 49
ROWE, L. S., The Larger Significance of the Lima Conference, 137–140; 132
quoted, 34
Rubio, Julian Mario, 20
quoted, 21
RYAN, JAMES H., Some Observations and Conclusions After a Tour of South America, 54–58

Salgado, Plinio, 22
Salochi, Cino, 22
Schacht, Hjalmar, 26, 47, 66, 151
quoted, 153
Shipping
American flag services curtailed, 157 government aid to shipping, 157–159
France, Great Britain, Italy, Germany, Japan, 159–162

government ownership, United States, 162–163 handicaps to American shipowners, 157–158 ratio of foreign to American ships, 156–157 superiority of foreign vessels over American, 155–156
Simons, Hans, 29
Smith, J. Russell, 107
Social readjustment necessitated by world maturity, 109–110
SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF BUSINESS: A LABOR VIEW, Robert J. Watt, 80–85 interest on borrowed money, 84 political responsibilities, 84–85 profit-making, 80–81 purchase of raw materials, 81–82 social responsibility as affecting purchasing power, 84 taxes, 83–84
treatment of labor, 82–83
upkeep of plant, 83
SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF BUSINESS: A MANAGER'S VIEW, A. P. Young, 86–92 industrial planning, 91–92 industrial service, 89–90 industrial standards, 91 social implications of management, 88–89
Social security, unsatisfactory status of, 75
SOME INTER-AMERICAN FINANCIAL PROBLEMS, Otto T. Kreuser, 164–168
SOME OBSERVATIONS AND CONCLUSIONS AFTER A TOUR OF SOUTH AMERICA, James H. Ryan, 54–58
Stalin, Joseph, 28
Stimson, Henry L., 141
quoted, 130
STREIT, CLARENCE K., The Atlantic Union Plan and the Americas, 93–101; 131
Stresemann, Gustav, 32
STRUGGLE FOR MINERAL RESOURCES, THE, C. K. Leith, 42–48

Taft, William H., 141
Taxes
business responsibility for, 83–84 necessary for social readjustment, 109
Technological progress, ill effects of, 84, 108–109
THOMAS, EUGENE P., Inter-American Trade Problems, 147–154
Totalitarian influences in Latin America conferences regarding, 17 cultural contacts, 4–5
fascist leanings of Latin Americans, 5–6, 25 German propaganda, 19–24
trade methods, 2, 38–39, 40, 66, 150–152, 153–154
Italian influence, 21–23
Japanese propaganda, 3 methods of determining strength of, 11 personal factor in, 7–8
propagandist arguments, 5
South American indifference to, 55, 56
Soviet influence, 7
Spanish influence, 5–7, 20–21
See also Democracy in Latin America
Trade, international, see International trade
TRADING WITH DICTATORS, Percy W. Bidwell, 59–65
TRANSPORTATION PROBLEMS, Charles H. C. Pearsall, 155–163

Uhle, Max, 132
Unemployment caused by technological advance, 84, 108–109 social significance of, 75–76

Vanasco, J., quoted, 23
Vargas, Getulio, 22
Vattel, Emmerichs de, 169
Virasoro, P., quoted, 23

Wallace, Henry A., 68
Washington, George, 95, 113
Watt, James, 86
WATT, ROBERT J., Social Responsibilities of Business: A Labor View, 80–85
Webster, Daniel, 101
Welles, Sumner, 141
Wilson, Woodrow, 112, 141
WINKLER, MAX, America Looks Southward, 34–41

YOUNG, A. P., Social Responsibilities of Business: A Manager's View, 86–92